

For UniCare State Indemnity Plan/PLUS members

Effective July 1, 2018

“What’s a copay? A deductible? An out-of-pocket limit? How does my plan work if I have to go to a doctor?”
Use this guide for a better idea of how it works and get some peace of mind.

Preventive care

- We cover 100% of the allowed amount for yearly checkups, preventive tests and other things that keep you healthy.¹

Copay (copayment)

- When you see a doctor, you pay a set amount to the doctor for the visit. A copay is a fixed dollar amount you pay when you get a medical service, such as when you go to your doctor.
- Copays don't count toward your deductible.

Deductible

- You pay a set amount toward certain covered services each year before UniCare begins paying benefits for those services.
- A medical deductible works just like the deductible for your car insurance: it's the fixed amount you have to pay before your insurance kicks in.
- Covered services that the deductible applies to include labs, X-rays and surgeons' fees.

Coinsurance

- Some health care bills are shared between you and UniCare. This is called coinsurance.
- UniCare pays either 80% or 100% of the allowed amount, depending on what the service is.

Out-of-pocket maximum

- To protect you from high costs, your plan has an out-of-pocket maximum. This maximum is the most you could pay for copays, deductible and coinsurance in a year.
- Once you meet your out-of-pocket maximum, we pay 100% of covered services for the rest of the plan year. (Your plan year starts on July 1 and ends on June 30 of the next year.)
- Your out-of-pocket maximum counts toward your member costs (copays, deductible and coinsurance). Your member handbook lists other costs, such as your insurance premiums, that aren't included.

The PLUS plan in action: an example situation

John has UniCare State Indemnity Plan/PLUS. His plan includes:

- ❑ $500 medical deductible (for care from PLUS providers)
- ❑ $15 copay for primary care visits (with a Patient-Centered Primary Care provider)
- ❑ $100 copay per day for high-tech imaging (such as MRIs, CT scans and PET scans)
- ❑ $275 copay for inpatient hospital care (at Tier 1 hospitals)
- ❑ 20% coinsurance for inpatient care at a skilled nursing facility
- ❑ $5,000 individual out-of-pocket maximum (for care from PLUS providers)

After injuring his knee in a soccer game, John calls his doctor. He makes sure to get all his care from PLUS providers, which costs him the least. This example explains what happened, what John paid, and what UniCare paid.

Important! The charges below are examples and don't reflect accurate costs for the services listed.

What happened		What John's costs were
John goes to the doctor
Doctor visit (without insurance):	$200	$15 – John's copay for a primary care office visit John's doctor is a Patient-Centered Primary Care provider; otherwise, his copay would be $20.
UniCare's allowed amount:	$120
John paid:	$15
UniCare paid:	$105
The doctor orders an MRI of John's knee
MRI cost (without insurance):	$1,500	$100 – John's copay for the MRI (high-tech imaging) $500 – John's deductible This satisfies all of John's medical deductible
UniCare's allowed amount:	$1,000
John paid:	$600
UniCare paid:	$400
The doctor recommends surgery
Hospital/surgery (without insurance):	$64,000	$275 – John's copay for his hospital stay
UniCare's allowed amount:	$35,000
John paid:	$275
UniCare paid:	$34,725
John goes to a skilled nursing facility for follow-up care
Facility cost (without insurance):	$40,000	$4,110 – John's coinsurance John's 20% coinsurance would be $6,400, but he has a $5,000 out-of-pocket maximum. Since he has already paid $890 in other costs, he owes $4,110 in coinsurance before hitting his out-of-pocket maximum.
UniCare's allowed amount:	$32,000
John paid:	$4,110
UniCare paid:	$27,890
Summary
Total without insurance:	$105,700
Total John paid:	$5,000
Total UniCare paid:	$63,120
